

Congratulations to our 2013 South Dakota Farmers Union Scholarship recipients

Myles Bialas

Myles Bialas has been awarded the $500 Farmers Union Foundation Memorial Scholarship. Myles is the son of Craig and Stacey Bialas from Dimock and is a senior at Parkston High School. He plans to attend South Dakota State University and pursue a degree in agronomy. The memorial scholarship is presented on behalf of the families of the late Emil Loriks, Les Saboe and other Farmers Union members who have donated to the scholarship fund.

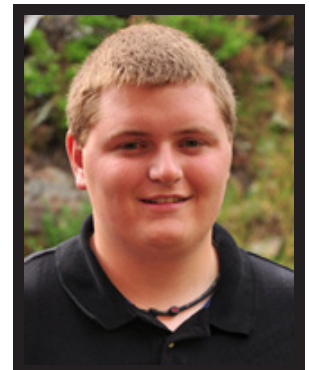

Maria Nightingale

Maria Nightingale is the recipient of the $500 Farmers Union Foundation Cooperative Scholarship. The daughter of Craig and Sandy Nightingale of White Lake, Maria is a senior at White Lake High School. She plans to pursue a degree in the health care profession at South Dakota State University. The Cooperative Scholarship is awarded on behalf of Ben and the late Dorothy Radcliffe and the families of the late Clifford Ott, Richard Pastian and Adam Seidel.

Nathan Nugteren

Nathan Nugteren will receive the $500 Farmers Union Foundation Leadership Scholarship. He is the son of Darin and Lisa Nugteren of Canistota and is a senior at Canistota High School. Nathan plans to attend Southeast Technical Institute to pursue a degree in Diesel Technology. The Leadership Scholarship is presented on behalf of the family of the late Frank Butler.

Farmers Union Foundation scholarships have been awarded annually since 1961. Recipients are selected on the basis of organizational and community involvement, academic achievement and financial need.
